

CAFA DISTINGUISHED ACADEMIC AWARDS, 2021

The Confederation of Alberta Faculty Associations (CAFA), which represents the academic staff associations at the University of Alberta, the University of Lethbridge, Mount Royal University, Grant MacEwan University, and Athabasca University, is pleased to announce the recipients of the CAFA Distinguished Academic Awards for 2021.

The annual CAFA Awards are designed to recognize excellence and raise awareness of the many ways in which the scholarly or creative work of university academic staff members serves the wider community outside our universities.

The recipient of the CAFA Distinguished Academic Award for 2021 Dr. Sandy Jung, Professor (Psychology) at MacEwan University.

Dr. Melissa Tremblay, Assistant Professor (Educational Psychology) at University of Alberta, has been chosen to receive this year's CAFA Distinguished Academic Early Career Award.

Dr. Brett McCollum, Professor (Chemistry) at Mount Royal University, is the recipient of the CAFA Distinguished Teaching Award, for 2021.

A media release providing further details is forthcoming. Due to the extraordinary times, we are living in, this year's Awards will be presented during an on-line event, date to be announced.

The Awards Selection Committee this year faced a particularly difficult task in choosing among many outstanding nominees, from across a wide range of disciplines. The Committee wishes to congratulate all the nominees and thanks everyone who participated in the nomination process.
